Can you help me find all the fruit and vegetable names from the grid on the right?

Help Rosemary find the shadow that matches!

A detailed blue line drawing of a woven basket overflowing with a variety of fruits. The basket is made of wicker with visible vertical and horizontal weaving patterns. Inside, there is a large watermelon with characteristic stripes, a whole pineapple with its crown of leaves, a bunch of small round grapes, a sliced kiwi showing its green flesh and black seeds, a banana, and several citrus fruits including lemons and limes. Some fruits are partially obscured by others, creating a sense of abundance. The drawing is done in a clean, sketchy style with no shading or color.
