❄️❄️❄️ Folklore season

Autumn/Winter Collection 2022

PREFACE

To all our fun-guys & gals

This season, it's into the woods for autumnal aesthetics, inspired by Alexander McQueen's Mycelium dream of a fall collection.

Prepare to be spellbound as you drink in the mythology of Britain, marvel at the magic of mushroom season, become bedazzled by the best brunches in town & believe in the magic of Book Fairies.

Pull up a toadstool, grab yourself a glass of something extraordinary & live your best modern fairy tale life this A/W.

It's Folklore Season.

Who said getting lost was a bad thing?

Telling tales with cocktails

We can't wait to welcome you into our sacred grove of unbe-leaf-ably divine new drinks celebrating the legendary lore of these magical isles & shimmering with BIG main character energy. Wander through an enchanted forest of stunning sips, stopping to retrieve the legendary Sword in the Stone from a captivating concoction of smoked

Johnnie Walker whisky, Belsazar red vermouth, lemon juice and foamed agave. Enjoy some El Rayo tequila, Cointreau, lime, honey & Artisan pink citrus tonic with your girl Mead Marian. Cross paths with the short-in-stature-low-in-alcohol-but-big-in-lychee Tom Thumb. And of course, everyone knows folk stories go down better when enjoyed together- kind of like a Winter Elixir or Pornstar Martini Royale sharing tree! Now that's our kind of forest. So gather up your fae-vourite folk & fly down to your nearest D&M for a drinks menu so magical, you won't be able to pixie just one.

Branch out into something new

From zero proof to zero waste by way of wonderful wellness lattes, discover a selection of sips rooted in something altogether different & magical with D&M this A/W. Be charmed by the violette and jasmine-infused Merlin, a showcase of pure gin-wizardry in partnership with the climate positive Sapling Spirits. They love trees so much, they'll even be planting an IRL one in the IRL forest for every one of these zero-waste sips sold. There has literally never been a better excuse to drink gin & we're here for it.

In September, The Folly will be teaming up with London

Nootropics to bring you a champignon new take on a classic cocktail - Espresso Martini with less sugar and more mental clarity-promoting mushroom coffee. Sound a little out there? We have a feeling this fun(gi) little treat may well grow on you...

hot honey or even a sweet start to the day with Mango, pecan and Chantilly cream?

Be you a Turmeric Tea & Toasted Crumpets type, a tropical Breakfast Bowl babe or fully up for a Full Works with all the fabulous fixings, it's WELL worth setting that alarm a little early to break your fast with extra style and sparkle. AM is in & we're bringing brekky back.

See you in the morning!

Into the woods

Don't let anyone tell you that there's no woodland wonderland in the urban jungle.

From October onwards, get spruced up & wander down to our enchanted Tanqueray gin terrace at The Happenstance – we're sure you'll soon see that there's plenty to be charmed by in your neck of the woods.

As the temperatures drop, there's no need to hibernate!
We've always been pretty good at making out-out a vibe,
whatever the weather, so stand by for patio heaters, cosy blankets & a little bit of pixie dust to light your way through the darker months.

Just call us your fairy godmother girl...

Would you believe we've raised £100k since 2019?

This is not just folklore.

Thanks to you & our lovely cake-baking, fun-running, kind & caring team of legends here at D&M, we can provide long-standing support to the magical Maggie's, a charity supporting people living with cancer & their families. Want to continue the good work?

This autumn & winter, we'll be donating 50p to Maggie's for every dish of Chalk Stream Trout with sorrel & hazelnut butter enjoyed - what a tree-t! It doesn't stop there, we're keeping the positive vibes rolling, for real... On September 27th, we're taking part in City Giving Day, a chance for local businesses to celebrate their causes close to their heart & wear lots of red (which we happen to look pretty good in).

Take a walk on the wild side

Something better to do this weekend? Beech, please. We're bringing the enchanted forest vibes seven days a week & it's not just the first, second or third time you visit that's a charm. What can we say? It's just in our nature to be this fabulous. Come & discover wonderful weekends and the most divine brunches in the whole damn city as you live out your very best modern fairytale.

Alongside our fabulous Disco, 90s/00s, Gospel & Drag brunches, seasonal highlights this A/W include:

- The happiest start to Folklore Season with a hunt to find, read & pass on the magic of folk stories with the Book Fairies;
